Dear Harold Weisberg

You haven't heard from me for a long time. I am still as interested in the Kennedy case as before, but during the past year I have become more and more involved in critically examining the Olof Palme murder. To my surprise there is a similar pattern here. The police hasn't been conducting a serious investigation. Instead they have tried to find scapegoats and cover up any real leads. A couple of hours ago it was announced on the news that the police is suspected of having bugged the D.A.:s office that was in charge of the murder investigation. This is just an example of the oddities happening in Sweden today. Kari

I wish you and your wife

God Jul

Gott Nytt År

(Merry Christmas and Happy New Year in Swedish.)
